

CATCH A BREAK AT THE BAR: ARIA PUTS INNOVATIVE AMERICAN FARE
IN YOUR MOUTH AND 20% BACK IN YOUR POCKET
Buckhead Restaurant Offers Budget-Friendly Bar Dining

Guests can dig into delicious food without having to dig too deep into their pockets when visiting Aria. This popular Buckhead dining destination from Chef/Owner Gerry Klaskala gives guests in the bar 20% off their entire food bill Monday through Saturday from open until close. Comfortably chic with luxurious red couches and low slung stools, the bar and lounge area is a stylish spot for meeting and greeting while enjoying fine American cuisine and sipping creative cocktails or wine. Examples of Klaskala's acclaimed menu items include warm lobster cocktail, tempura jumbo prawn, Niman Ranch slow roasted pork and Zinfandel braised short ribs. With this truly decadent discount, diners won't want to miss out on dessert either. Pastry Chef Kathryn King's award-winning creations like warm chocolate cheesecake or tangerine panna cotta are the most splurge-worthy sweets in town. This offer only applies to guests dining in the bar area and does not include alcohol, only food items.

Aria is located at 490 East Paces Ferry Road in Buckhead. Operating hours are 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., and valet parking is available. For reservations and additional information, call 404-233-7673 or visit www.aria-atl.com.
